

Early Level Home Learning Grid

Literacy and English	Numeracy and Mathematics	Health and Wellbeing
Share a story every day then talk about the story.	Pick a number between 0 and 20. Count forwards from	Make a kindness calendar, plan an act of kindness for each
Can you describe the character?	this number. Can you also count backwards to get back to	month of 2022 or challenge yourself to a week of
What was your favourite part?	the number you started from?	kindness before christmas or a month of kindness in
What do you think they might do next?	Challenge: Can you make a number line to show your	January.
Can you retell/draw the story?	counting?
Literacy and English	Numeracy and Mathematics	STEM
Watch some of this year's Christmas adverts on youtube.	Roll a dice, draw the dot pattern. Roll the dice again and	Use salt dough to create a christmas decoration. There are
Choose your favourite advert and draw a scene from it.	draw the new dot pattern. How many dots are there	lots of ideas online. Here is an easy recipe for the dough.
Could you add your own ideas.	when you add them together?	https://www.bbcgoodfood.com/howto/guide/how-make-
E.g. John Lewis ad - what else could the alien discover?	Challenge: Once you've done this 5 times, can you order	salt-dough-recipe
Aldi - What other food could come to life?	your answers from smallest to largest?
Disney - What does the dog get from Santa?
	Numeracy and Mathematics	Fynressive Arts
Literacy and English	Numeracy and Mathematics Draw a line Write 0 at one end and 20, at the other end	Expressive Arts Ask the members of your family what their favourite
Literacy and English Can you write a shopping list for your Christmas dinner?	Draw a line. Write 0 at one end and 20 at the other end.	Ask the members of your family what their favourite
Literacy and English Can you write a shopping list for your Christmas dinner? What treats would you add to the trolley? Talk about	Draw a line. Write 0 at one end and 20 at the other end. Ask someone to say a number, can you point to where the	Ask the members of your family what their favourite christmas song is. Find out why they like it. How does it
Literacy and English Can you write a shopping list for your Christmas dinner? What treats would you add to the trolley? Talk about which things would be in the same aisle, why are they	Draw a line. Write 0 at one end and 20 at the other end. Ask someone to say a number, can you point to where the number should be?	Ask the members of your family what their favourite christmas song is. Find out why they like it. How does it make them feel? Is it connected to a memory? Listen to
Literacy and English Can you write a shopping list for your Christmas dinner? What treats would you add to the trolley? Talk about	Draw a line. Write 0 at one end and 20 at the other end. Ask someone to say a number, can you point to where the	Ask the members of your family what their favourite christmas song is. Find out why they like it. How does it
Literacy and English Can you write a shopping list for your Christmas dinner? What treats would you add to the trolley? Talk about which things would be in the same aisle, why are they	Draw a line. Write 0 at one end and 20 at the other end. Ask someone to say a number, can you point to where the number should be?	Ask the members of your family what their favourite christmas song is. Find out why they like it. How does it make them feel? Is it connected to a memory? Listen to
Literacy and English Can you write a shopping list for your Christmas dinner? What treats would you add to the trolley? Talk about which things would be in the same aisle, why are they grouped together?	Draw a line. Write 0 at one end and 20 at the other end. Ask someone to say a number, can you point to where the number should be? Challenge: write the numbers instead of pointing.	Ask the members of your family what their favourite christmas song is. Find out why they like it. How does it make them feel? Is it connected to a memory? Listen to the songs and sing or dance along.
Literacy and English Can you write a shopping list for your Christmas dinner? What treats would you add to the trolley? Talk about which things would be in the same aisle, why are they grouped together? Literacy and English	Draw a line. Write 0 at one end and 20 at the other end. Ask someone to say a number, can you point to where the number should be? Challenge: write the numbers instead of pointing. Numeracy and Mathematics	Ask the members of your family what their favourite christmas song is. Find out why they like it. How does it make them feel? Is it connected to a memory? Listen to the songs and sing or dance along. Social Studies
Literacy and English Can you write a shopping list for your Christmas dinner? What treats would you add to the trolley? Talk about which things would be in the same aisle, why are they grouped together? Literacy and English Play a memory game.	Draw a line. Write 0 at one end and 20 at the other end. Ask someone to say a number, can you point to where the number should be? Challenge: write the numbers instead of pointing. Numeracy and Mathematics Take a look at a calendar (you can get simple ones on	Ask the members of your family what their favourite christmas song is. Find out why they like it. How does it make them feel? Is it connected to a memory? Listen to the songs and sing or dance along. Social Studies Find out about Christmas in another country. What do
Literacy and English Can you write a shopping list for your Christmas dinner? What treats would you add to the trolley? Talk about which things would be in the same aisle, why are they grouped together? Literacy and English Play a memory game. 1st person says: I went to the shops and I bought (item1)	Draw a line. Write 0 at one end and 20 at the other end. Ask someone to say a number, can you point to where the number should be? Challenge: write the numbers instead of pointing. Numeracy and Mathematics Take a look at a calendar (you can get simple ones on google) Talk about December.	Ask the members of your family what their favourite christmas song is. Find out why they like it. How does it make them feel? Is it connected to a memory? Listen to the songs and sing or dance along. Social Studies Find out about Christmas in another country. What do they eat? Do they have gifts? Do they celebrate on the
Literacy and English Can you write a shopping list for your Christmas dinner? What treats would you add to the trolley? Talk about which things would be in the same aisle, why are they grouped together? Literacy and English Play a memory game. 1st person says: I went to the shops and I bought (item1) 2nd person says: I went to the shops and I bought (item 1)	Draw a line. Write 0 at one end and 20 at the other end. Ask someone to say a number, can you point to where the number should be? Challenge: write the numbers instead of pointing. Numeracy and Mathematics Take a look at a calendar (you can get simple ones on google) Talk about December. E.g. What day is it tomorrow? How many days until	Ask the members of your family what their favourite christmas song is. Find out why they like it. How does it make them feel? Is it connected to a memory? Listen to the songs and sing or dance along. Social Studies Find out about Christmas in another country. What do
Literacy and English Can you write a shopping list for your Christmas dinner? What treats would you add to the trolley? Talk about which things would be in the same aisle, why are they grouped together? Literacy and English Play a memory game. 1st person says: I went to the shops and I bought (item1)	Draw a line. Write 0 at one end and 20 at the other end. Ask someone to say a number, can you point to where the number should be? Challenge: write the numbers instead of pointing. Numeracy and Mathematics Take a look at a calendar (you can get simple ones on google) Talk about December.	Ask the members of your family what their favourite christmas song is. Find out why they like it. How does it make them feel? Is it connected to a memory? Listen to the songs and sing or dance along. Social Studies Find out about Christmas in another country. What do they eat? Do they have gifts? Do they celebrate on the
Literacy and English Can you write a shopping list for your Christmas dinner? What treats would you add to the trolley? Talk about which things would be in the same aisle, why are they grouped together? Literacy and English Play a memory game. 1st person says: I went to the shops and I bought (item1) 2nd person says: I went to the shops and I bought (item 1)	Draw a line. Write 0 at one end and 20 at the other end. Ask someone to say a number, can you point to where the number should be? Challenge: write the numbers instead of pointing. Numeracy and Mathematics Take a look at a calendar (you can get simple ones on google) Talk about December. E.g. What day is it tomorrow? How many days until Christmas day? What day is Christmas Day? What month	Ask the members of your family what their favourite christmas song is. Find out why they like it. How does it make them feel? Is it connected to a memory? Listen to the songs and sing or dance along. Social Studies Find out about Christmas in another country. What do they eat? Do they have gifts? Do they celebrate on the